

The Flowers

Robert Louis Stevenson

All the names I know from nurse:
Gardner's garters, shepherd's purse:
Bachelor's buttons, lady's smock,
And the lady hollyhock.

Fairy places, fairy things,
Fairy woods where the wild bee wings,
Tiny trees for tiny dames-
These must all be fairy names!

Tiny woods below whose boughs
Shady fairies weave a house;
Tiny treetops, rose or thyme,
Where the braver fairies climb!

Fair are grown-up people's trees,
But the fairest woods are these;
Where, if I were not so tall,
I should live for good and all.

Ribbon Cutting

Thanks to the Seventh District, Federated Garden Clubs of New York, for the floral arrangements. Flowers were generously provided by Arbor Heights Nursery, Genrich's Florist & Greenhouses, Phelps Florist & Greenhouses, Ver Hulst Brothers Farm Market, and Wegmans Food Market Floral Department (Pittsford).

A special thanks to Mary Streb, Director of Marketing, U.S. Postal Service, for her hard work in organizing this event.
